FOR QUESTIONS 22 TO 25, READ THE PASSAGE AND ANSWER THE QUESTIONS THAT FOLLOW.

The Shopping Mall

Once a month, when I was a child, my father would drive us all to a big town about 100 miles away so we could go shopping. The car was big enough, but I always used to get squashed by my brother and sister. We all wanted to go to the shopping mall for different things. My brother wanted to go and buy music. My sister always wanted to buy new trainers; she was a great runner.

My parents loved to go to the food hall and try out new things to eat and drink. They spent hours in there but never bought much. The day always went by very quickly and we used to meet up in the evening so we could have dinner together. This was always very special and super tasty.

On the way home, I think we all slept except for my father who was driving. This was because the trip was always very tiring for us all.

Example

The passage is about _____.

- A. a happy memory
B. a family visiting relatives
C. a man and his sons
D. seeing old friends

22. How did the writer feel in the car?
